Business of the House

MR. SPEAKER.—Before I adjourn the House, I would like to mention one or two points. The first is that His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to order that in pursuance of Article 202 of the Constitution of India, he directs that the Annual Financial Statement for the year 1966-67 shall be laid before the Houses of Legislature. The next is that the general Debate on the Budget will begin day-after-tomorrow.

And the other point is, in order to assist the members in the study for the purposes of their Debate, the budgets of the previous years have been kept ready for reference in the section of the Library, where speeial arrangements have been made at the projecting balcony affording a few facilities. If some more books are wanted by the members, they may kindly let me know, and I will try to be of use to them. Lastly, I want to make a request to the Whips of the parties. The Whips of the parties may meet among themselves and try to help me in co-ordinating the Debate.

The House will now stand adjourned to reassemble tomorrow at 1-00 P.M.

The House adjourned at Twenty Minutes past Eleven of the Clock to meet again at One of the Clock on Thursday, the 3rd March 1966.
